What do you do for a living, and what does your spouse do?

I am a retired Firefighter. Worked for the Grand Prairie Fire Department for 30 years. I am the founder and Senior Pastor of the Bear Creek Community Church in Irving. My spouse is the Administration Secretary for the Bear Creek Community Church.

The position you're seeking requires a lot of time and energy but provides meager compensation. Why do you want it?

I have been on the council for about 12 years. We do get some compensation. I don't do the job for the money. I have a desire to serve my city and help be a voice for our residents. I want to be reelected to continue serving. I believe my background and the leadership roles I have served in equipped me to be on the council.

When and why did you move to Irving?

I moved to Irving 42 years ago. I married my current wife and we built our house here. It is located in the Historic Bear Creek Community. I have lived in the Bear Creek Community for 60 years. Bear Creek covers two city limits: Grand Prairie and Irving. I lived on the Grand Prairie side before we married.

What are the biggest issues facing the city?

Legislative policy and mandates that negatively affects the cities ability to fund its city and the stripping of cities local control by the State Legislature.

The availability of affordable housing and housing for aging seniors.

Supply Chain Issues especially with Emergency vehicles delivery.

Lack of available land for new development.

Why should voters choose you over your opponent?

I have a tract record of service to the city in many community outreaches for over 25 years.

I currently serve on the City Council. I am aware of the challenges our city faces and am already working with Council and staff to address them. The institutional knowledge I have gained over the years and the trusting relationships with staff, other city officials, county officials is vital to the success of the council. I have a proven track record of service and vision for many years. I am without a doubt the most qualified and committed candidate.
